

CBS CORPORATION NEWS: MAY -- AUGUST 2016

CBS CONTINUES TO CHART THE FUTURE

CBS has recently made a number of key moves designed to continue to drive its businesses ahead of the curve, while aggressively pursuing opportunities for long-term growth:

- CBS had a very successful Upfront marketplace. Press reports have been bullish. Advertising Age headlined: “CBS Wraps Up Its Upfront Talks in a Strong Showing.” Variety reported: “CBS expects to wrap its upfront sales with a greater volume of advance ad commitments than it did last year, one of the first tangible signs that advertisers are moving money back into TV after experimenting for several years with digital competitors.” And Deadline Hollywood wrote: “CBS appears to be the first major broadcaster that’s nearly ready to close the books on its upfront ad sales, and the numbers continue to indicate that this is a strong year.”

- The new STAR TREK television series has been licensed by CBS Studios International to Netflix in 188 countries around the world, and to Bell Media in Canada. In both cases, each episode of the new series will be available globally within 24 hours of its U.S. premiere. Additionally, both Netflix and Bell have licensed all 727 existing episodes of the iconic “Star Trek” television library – which includes “Star Trek: The Original Series,” “Star Trek: The Next Generation,” “Star Trek: Deep Space Nine,” “Star Trek: Voyager” and “Star Trek: Enterprise.” For more information on the Netflix agreement, go to <http://bit.ly/29OkDbw>. For more information on the Bell Media agreement, go to <http://bit.ly/29OkIW2>. For more International news, see page 6.

- In a new multi-year content licensing relationship with Netflix the SVOD revenue for The CW has been greatly expanded. Under the relationship, Netflix will remain the exclusive U.S. subscription television service for previous seasons of scripted series broadcast on The CW. The deal spans all current CW series, as well as all future programs produced for the Network during the term of the agreement. Starting with the upcoming 2016-2017 season, Netflix members will be able to stream full seasons for each of these programs beginning eight days after each show's season finale. For more information go to <http://tinyurl.com/zr7rxme>. For more information on The CW, go to page 7..

- We have negotiated a new affiliate agreement for The CW stations with Tribune Media Company for 12 of Tribune's currently affiliated CW stations across the country. The markets renewed cover 25 percent of the U.S. and serve more than 28 million households. Separately, The CW and Tribune announced that the local Chicago CW affiliation will move from Tribune Broadcasting to Fox Television Stations and WGN-TV/Chicago will become an independent station, featuring local news, live sports and syndicated programming during primetime. For more information, go to <http://bit.ly/1OIKRdH> ... In May, The CW signed an affiliation agreement with the Fox Television Stations' Chicago station WPWR-TV, to take effect Sept. 1, 2016. For more The CW Information, go to Page 7.
- In connection with our previously announced plans to separate our Radio business, we have filed a preliminary registration statement on Form S-1 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission for the proposed initial public offering of the common stock of CBS Radio Inc. For more CBS Radio news see page 9..
- We issued $700 million of senior notes with interest rates that were at historic lows. CBS is using the net proceeds for general corporate purposes, including the repurchase of CBS Class B common stock pursuant to the Company's authorized share repurchase program and the repayment of short-term borrowings, including commercial paper.
